SIR,

In reply to your letter No.G.7155-70/G.M.387-17-1 dated 29th November 1917, I have the honor to state that the Probationer newly appointed for the Prisons Department has to receive first some Military training. By receiving this training, he will acquire thorough executive ability, and smartness which a successful Jail Officer ought to posses. Further, he should have some training in agriculture and gardening to render himself capable of maintaining Jail farm and garden. He should also receive elementary training in such of the industries as are generally carried on in the Jails of the State, Viz. Carpentry, Weaving, Smithery, Gunny making etc.

2. As regards the examinations he has to pass, I have to state that it is compulsory that he should pass the Prisons Examination prescribed in rule 69 of the revised Jail Manual. He should, besides, qualify himself by passing other departmental examinations such as Criminal, Accounts etc., so that he may have an insight into the accounts and other matters when occasion arises.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T. V. Arumugam

the the Chief Commandant. The period of such Military training will be for six months. During the probationary period of 2 years laid in G.O. no. G. 9060-9102/G.m.
101-16-1 dated 2nd January 1917, the Probationer should also qualify himself by passing the marginally noted examinations of the Madras Local Services. He should also attend the Office of the I.G. of Prisons every afternoon to acquire a thorough knowledge of all the Standing rules, Office routine & procedures.

As regards industrial training, I am to say that it may be deferred till after the preliminary training of the first six months is over.

I am also to request you to be so good as to submit to Government a report as to the progress made by the Probationer
